

Newcastle Court

Evancoyd, Presteigne, Powys, LD8 2PA

jackson
property

£675,000

An interesting and historic Grade II listed link-attached country residence forming part of a former estate situated in a stunning rural location giving a real air of the elegance of a bygone age. The principle residence has four reception rooms and eleven bedrooms arranged over three floors with extensive high ceilinged cellars which maintain an even temperature all the year round. The main house has been prepared by the current owners for the renovation work and refurbishment required. The grounds extend to approximately 9 acres, with ponds, woodland and gardens.

Situation

A gravel driveway passes in front of the Lodge and meanders through a tree lined approach to Newcastle Court. The land generally slopes in a southerly direction and comprises mature woodland and gardens. A particular feature of the grounds are the pathways, which lead through the gardens and mature woodland and which lead down to the pools, which are located adjacent to the southern boundary. The gardens comprise of lawn areas, which immediately surround the residence, with an abundance of shrubs, trees and flowering plants.

Presteigne is a much sought after small border town surrounded by lovely countryside and offering a good and interesting range of shopping, recreational and educational facilities.

Description

Newcastle Court House has been prepared by the current owners for renovation and refitting, although the works already done have included a full re-roofing programme, the rebuilding of the chimney stacks, new guttering, repairs to the exterior rendering and paintwork, replacement of windows and internal joists. The property is currently vacant and requires finishing and fitting out (including the kitchen and bathrooms) to the new owners requirements.

Services

Newcastle Court House is connected to mains electric and water. Please note the extent of the drainage system is unknown.

Coronavirus Jackson Property Protocol

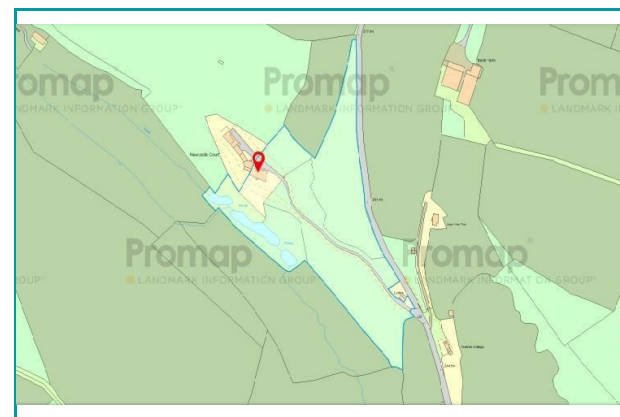

We thought we'd update you following the outbreak of COVID-19 in the UK, and the first confirmed case in Herefordshire on 9 March 2020

We continue to follow the advice given to us by the Local Authority. At this moment, you should not be unduly concerned and there is no reason you should look to decline access to your home for any viewings, inspections and contract work.

However, in order to ensure we keep our clients, our staff, and our families as safe as possible we have decided that you should notify Jackson Property immediately if you decide to self-isolate, so we can prevent any potential cross contamination between all parties.

In order to protect our clients, families and staff, we are also following the FCO's latest advice (please click on the following link, as the advice is updated frequently).
